

What to Expect

Make plans to join us along Sherman's Trail to find treasures, antiques and gifts! Each community along the trail will be hosting sales ranging in collectibles to traditional yard sale items. There will be something available for everyone. Local shops, and restaurants will also be participating along the way. Each community will have something different for you!

Visit our website for lodging and dining information for the specific communities along the trail.

www.shermanstrailyardsale.com

First Annual

SHERMAN'S TRAIL
YARD SALE

Saturday May 7th and
Sunday May 8th, 2011

Bartow	Conyers
Covington	Davisboro
Eatonton	Jackson
Louisville	Madison
Milledgeville	Millen
Monticello	Rutledge
Sandersville	Social Circle
Sylvania	Tennille
Wadley	Waynesboro

Between Atlanta and Savannah, find small town treasures, antiques,
and gifts for sale...

All along Sherman's Trail!

{ www.shermanstrailyardsale.com }

About the Yard Sale

In 1864 Sherman left Atlanta on 2 columns on his famous March to the Sea. The Right Wing was led by Gen. O.O. Howard and the Left Wing was led by Gen. Henry Warner Slocum. The communities along these trails would like for you to participate in our event. Please join us along the Trail for shopping and visiting some of Georgia's antebellum past.

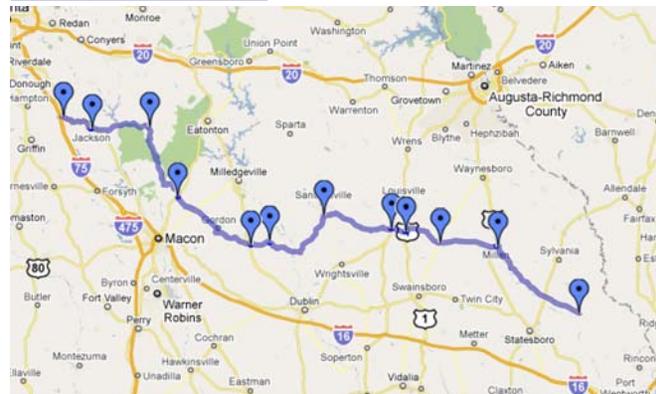

Visit www.gacivilwar.org for more information on events in Georgia commemorating the 150th anniversary of the Civil War.

Left Wing Route

Conyers, Covington, Social Circle, Rutledge, Madison, Eatonton, Milledgeville, Sandersville, Davisboro, Louisville, Waynesboro, Sylvania, and Springfield

Right Wing Route

Locust Grove, Jackson, Monticello, Gray, Gordon, Irwinton, Toombsboro, Tennille, Bartow, Wadley, Millen, Oliver

Helpful Hints for Sellers

- Bring newspaper to wrap fragile items.
- Keep a calculator handy for adding prices.
- Keep change!
- Use sandwich bags for small to semi-large items.
- Display some small, "free" items to drive traffic.
- Wear comfortable shoes.
- Arrive early!

To be a part of Sherman's Trail Yard Sale, visit the website for contact information on communities closest to you and their participation requirements.